I Shall Be Satisfied. 11s

The Revivalist (1858); arr. T. Ivey

G minor.

1. If I in thy likeness, O Lord, may awake, And shine a pure image of thee, I know this stain'd
Then I shall be satisfied when I can break These fetters of flesh and be free.

D.C. I know I must suffer the darkness of night To welcome the coming of dawn.

2. Then I shall be satisfied when I can cast The shadows of nature all by, I gladly shall When time's dreary world from my vision is past, To let this soul open her eye,

D.C. If then in thy likeness I may but appear, And rise with thy beauty arrayed.

3. To see thee in glory, O Lord, as thou art, From thine immortal, eternal day
The spirit immortal in peace would depart, And joyous mount up her bright way
When on thine own image in me thou hast smiled, Within thy blest mansions, and when
The arms of my Father encircle his child,
O, I shall be satisfied then.

D.C. tablet must first be wash'd white To let thy bright features be drawn, feel the blest morn drawing near, Whentime's dreary fancy shall fade,
